Hassan District. Hassan RANCH

Applicant:- Basaviah. son of Subbanna. Devanga community.
Resident of Holenarsipur.

The applicant most respectfully state as follows -

1. The applicant belongs to Devanga community which is a minor community and unrepresented in the Municipal council since many years

2. This devanga community comprise of more than 64 families in Holenarsipur, and the community's interests have considerably suffered for want of their representative in the council.

3 The community trades in mostly yarn and weaving is their profession. The applicant is literate and comes of a respectable family. He is a trader doing business He has been popular and has great influence in his community.

4 Many other communities are being represented in the council and it is unfortunate that this community had not so far any opportunity to represent the council and fight for the betterment of their community and atleast this time the prayer of the petitioner may kindly be considered.

The Petitioner has a house at Holenarsipur. The petitioner most respectfully prays, that his name may kindly be considered by the benign Authorities and he be recommended to the council for nomination for which act of kindness the petitioner feels highly beholden.
